SARAH SEWELL

Sarah Sewell was born in Mobile, Alabama. She moved to Atlanta, Georgia and graduated high school from Alonzo A. Crim High School. She and her family attend New Life Holiness Church by the Bay. They love God and have a very close family.

Ms. Sewell and her children love to go bowling, play laser tag, visit the park, Chuck-E-Cheese, the beach, the water park, and watch movies. They also enjoy going to church activities.

Ms. Sewell's sons enjoy playing basketball. Some of the kids are in drama class, band, and dance. Shavantee has been praise dancing at church for four years.

Ms. Sewell said this about homeownership, "Owning my own home is a blessing! I've dreamed about it since I was a little girl. It feels good to finally have a place that me and my kids can call home. It is important for them to know that they will always have a home to stay in even when I'm gone."
