CIZA BIRINGANE

Ciza Biringane was born in Congo, but he grew up in a refugee camp in Tanzania. He attended school while in the refugee camp, but he could not finish because he could no longer receive financial aid. He thanks God that he and his family were able to make it through. He has a huge family of eight boys and four girls, but God has always kept His hand on them. Mr. Biringane has many stories of a hard and difficult life spent in Africa. Since they have left Africa their life has changed drastically. His parents encouraged their children to follow Jesus. They came to know God and the hope that He provides His people.

He recently married Angelique from Congo. Angelique was born in Congo, but grew up in a refugee camp in Tanzania. She started elementary school, but lost financial aid. After a few years her family had the chance to come to the United States and they jumped at the opportunity.

Mr. Biringane has a lot of goals. He has the goal of raising a family of his own like his father did. He also would like to continue his education. His final dream is to become a homeowner. Mr. Biringane would like to thank Habitat for Humanity and God for answering his prayers. The children are involved in several sports related activities. Mr. Biringane is very proud of the children for having good class attendance and good behavior.

Mr. Biringane said, "First, I would like to say thank you to the Almighty God. My own home will change my life, because it will make me one step closer to my goals in life. Also, it will help me to manage my money, because I will be paying for the house and it will benefit me. This will be the first step in my life where I can take care of and love something."
